Enter CIO2Go ...

The Small Business VIRTUAL Chief Information Officer (CIO).

TRUE effective system solutions not only apply leading edge technologies, but strategically couple that technology with business process change.

FIVE KEY STRATEGIES to making Information Technology pay:

STABILIZE THE PLAYING FIELD		LEVERAGE UNTAPPED RESOURCES	ENABLE GROWTH AND PROFITABILITY
1	2	3	4	5
Attack Downtime	Eliminate Errors	Maximize Efficiency	Implement Strategic Systems	Employ Project Management
The hidden profits killer.	By software or process, errors = cost.	Over half of existing technical capabilities are often left untapped.	The possibilities are endless. Identifying and selecting the RIGHT solution is critical.	Tried and true methods for containing costs and meeting objectives.

Making Information Technology PAY for Small Business

YOUR SMALL BUSINESS VIRTUAL CIO

My name is Joe Thul, and I am the president and founder of CIO2Go. My mission is to provide your business with your own virtual IT organization. I have been in the Information Technology industry for over eighteen years, and have provided IT solutions and direction to companies from small entreprenuerial concerns to major Fortune 300 companies.

CIO2Go was created with a single vision:

Bring the benefits of large corporate IT to the small business community.
